995. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Finance Minister recently attended the first Global Indian Entrepreneurs Conference (GIEC) held in June 1996 in Singapore;

(b) how many NRIs attended the conference (country-wise) and what was the response to accelerate the flow of NRI savings and capital into projects in India; and

(c) what are the details of discussions held and outcome of GIEC?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND THE MINISTER OF COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Yes, Sir. The Finance Minister attended the Global Indian Entrepreneurs Conference (GIEC) organised by Singapore Indian Chamber of Commerce and Industry in June, 1996 in Singapore.

(b) and (c) The Conference was attended by about 600 delegates from countries all over the world including inter-alia, Singapore, Hongkong, Malaysia, South Korea, U.K. USA, UAE, Japan, Switzerland, Germany respresenting NRIs, Key Indian Industrialists, academics and foreign CEOS with experience of India, and Corporate Houses of Singapore. The conference generated tremendous enthusiasm among the participants about India, its future, and its potential for being an extremely attractive investment destination. The keenness of NRIs to involve themselves with India by interlinking among themselves and with the industry and Government in India was emphatically highlighted by participants. participants emphasised the need for continuity and to impart thrust to the process of NRI involvement in the economic development of India. The conference also provided an opportunity to Singaporean business to establish contacts with participants with a view to further business opportunities.

Financing of High Tech Activities by Commercial Banks

996. MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that commercial banks have been directed to finance high-tech activities like aquaculture, floriculture, bio-technology etc. in the country;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) details regarding funds made available to the farmers for acquaculture and floriculture in the State of Maharashtra during the last three years by commercial banks, bank-wise, year-wise and district-wise?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND THE MINISTER OF COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) and (b) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that although no general circular regarding financing high-tech activities in aquaculture such as tissue culture, floriculture and bio-technology has been issued to the banks, they have clarified to the banks that advances for such activities are to be classified as agriculture advances as part of priority sector advances.

However, as far as assistance from commercial banks for promotion of brackish-water aquaculture is concerned, RBI had issued a circular in April 1992 to the scheduled commercial banks. A copy of the circular is at Statement (See below).

(c) The data reporting system of RBI does not generate information in the manner asked for. However, National bank for Agriculture and Rural Development has reported that it had provided refinance for aquaculture and floriculture projects in the State of Maharashtra during the last three years as given below:

(Rs. lakhs)

| | 1993-94 | 1994-95 | 1995-96 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Aquaculture | — | 4 | 134 |
| Floriculture | 222 | 531 | 217 |

The district-wise information of the above disbursement is, however, not available.

Statement

Subject:—Assistance through commercial banks for promotion of brackishwater aquaculture.

As you are aware brackishwater aquaculture is not only a capital and technology intensive activity, but is also considered to be highly profitable. We have been informed by Ministry of Comemrce/Finance that commercial banks are not coming forward to assist small far-
